

---

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgements .....	III
Foreword .....	V
Preface .....	IX
Abbreviations list.....	XI
List of tables and figures .....	XIII
Introduction .....	1
Chapter 1 – The nature of ethics .....	15
Opening questions.....	17
1.1 Ethics and philosophy .....	18
1.2 Ethics versus morality.....	22
1.3 Ethics and law .....	26
1.4 Ethics and code of conduct .....	31
1.5 Values, principles and virtues.....	36
1.6 Ethical situations .....	41
1.7 The essence and finality of ethics .....	45
Conclusion .....	50
Integrative questions .....	51
Chapter 2 – Quadripartite Ethical Tool (QET).....	53
Opening questions.....	55
2.1 The origins of the QET.....	56
2.2 General description of the QET .....	57
2.3 Utilitarian ethics.....	59
2.3.1 Utilitarian ethics and occupational therapy.....	65

2.4 Deontological ethics.....	71
2.4.1 Deontological ethics and occupational therapy.....	76
2.5 Virtue ethics.....	82
2.5.1 Virtue ethics and occupational therapy.....	87
2.6 Axiological ontology.....	94
2.6.1 Axiological ontology and occupational therapy.....	99
2.7 How to use the QET.....	102
Conclusion.....	105
Integrative questions.....	105
Chapter 3 – Ethical reflection.....	107
Opening questions.....	109
3.1 The ten steps of ethical reflection.....	111
Step 1.....	114
Step 2.....	115
Step 3.....	118
Step 4.....	121
Step 5.....	126
Step 6.....	132
Step 7.....	133
Step 8.....	136
Step 9.....	137
Step 10.....	143
3.2 Illustration of the ten steps of ethical reflection.....	145
Conclusion.....	149
Integrative questions.....	149
Conclusion.....	151
Appendix.....	157
About the author.....	161
Summary.....	161
Translator’s note.....	162
References.....	163

---

LIST OF BOX, FIGURES AND TABLES

BOX

Box 1	Situations having the potential to raise ethical concerns.....	6
-------	----------------------------------------------------------------	---

FIGURES

Figure 1	The QET's four windows of ethical analysis .....	58
Figure 2	The four ethical concerns applied to the QET .....	98
Figure 3	Synthesis of the QET's four methods for conducting ethical analyzes.....	103
Figure 4	The ethical reflection: an iterative deliberation .....	114

TABLES

Table I	The occupational therapist's ethical competencies .....	3
Table 1.1	The main philosophical domains.....	21
Table 1.2	The main differences and similarities between ethics and morality .....	24
Table 1.3	Possible links between ethics and morality (morals).....	25

Table 1.4	Social norms and type of restriction .....	26
Table 1.5	The main differences and similarities between ethics and law .....	28
Table 1.6	Possible links between ethics and law .....	29
Table 1.7	The main differences and similarities between ethics and code of conduct .....	33
Table 1.8	Possible relationships between ethics and professional deontology .....	34
Table 1.9	Examples of values with the four windows of the QET .....	40
Table 1.10	Six types of ethical situations .....	42
Table 2.1	Utilitarian ethics and occupational therapy .....	71
Table 2.2	Deontological ethics and occupational therapy .....	82
Table 2.3	Virtue ethics and occupational therapy .....	93
Table 3.1	The ten steps of ethical reflection .....	112
Table 3.2	Example illustrating Step 1 of ethical reflection .....	114
Table 3.3	Example illustrating Step 2 of ethical reflection .....	117
Table 3.4	Example illustrating Step 3 of ethical reflection .....	119
Table 3.5	Example illustrating Step 4 of ethical reflection .....	122
Table 3.6	The criteria likely to be used to manage the waiting list .....	127
Table 3.7	Example illustrating Step 5 of ethical reflection .....	129
Table 3.8	Example illustrating Step 6 of ethical reflection .....	133
Table 3.9	Example illustrating Step 7 of ethical reflection .....	134
Table 3.10	Example illustrating Step 8 of ethical reflection .....	137
Table 3.11	The four parts of an argument .....	139
Table 3.12	Example illustrating Step 9 of ethical reflection .....	141
Table 3.13	Example illustrating Step 10 of ethical reflection .....	144
Table 3.14	The ethical reflection: Questions to answer and actions to perform .....	146