

CAOT AWARDS

CAOT-North Outstanding Occupational Therapist of the Year award

Recipients

2022 Chelsey Weleschuk

Chelsey has been supporting clients and influencing Early Learning and Child Care in Northern Canada since 2016. Most recently, she founded a pediatric occupational therapy practice centered on the Indigenous belief that all people are born capable. Her commitment to inclusive early childhood education and to walking alongside her clients to support them to grow and recognize their own unique gifts have contributed greatly to the advancement of the profession in the north.

2021 - Rachel Schooley

2019 - George Kokuryo
