

Table of Contents

Foreword.....	i
Preface.....	ix
CHAPTER 1
Helping children achieve.....	1
Introducing CO-OP	1
Why was CO-OP developed?.....	3
Traditional approaches.....	6
Search for a new approach	7
CHAPTER 2
Perspectives on enabling children: Foundations for CO-OP	17
Introducing the foundations	17
The International Classification of Functioning, Disability, and Health (ICF)	19
Evidence-based Practice	21
Client-centredness.....	23
Occupational performance	26
Learning Theory	28
Motor Learning and Performance	34
CHAPTER 3
The CO-OP protocol: Doing it!	47
The CO-OP objectives	48
The CO-OP prerequisites	49
The seven key features of CO-OP	51
Key Feature 1: Client-chosen goals.....	52
Clinical example: Dorothy's chosen goals	59
Key Feature 2: Dynamic Performance Analysis (DPA).....	60
Clinical example: Dorothy's DPA for skipping rope	64
Key Feature 3: Cognitive Strategy Use	66
Clinical example: Dorothy's Strategy Use	79
Key Feature 4: Guided discovery	80
Clinical example: Using guided discovery with Dorothy.....	87
Key Feature 5: Enabling principles.....	89
Key Feature 6: Parent or significant other involvement.....	96
Key Feature 7: Intervention format.....	99

CHAPTER 4
CO-OP Case Scenarios	107
Case Scenario 1: Jordan, a child with Developmental Coordination Disorder	108
Case Scenario 2: Matthew, a younger child with Developmental Coordination Disorder	119
Case Scenario 3: Peter, a child with epilepsy	128
Case Scenario 4: Colin, a child with Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder	134
Case Scenario 5: Scott, an adult with handwriting difficulties	139
Case Scenario 6: Application of CO-OP in a group setting	141
Case Scenario 7: Training a parent using a consultation model	144
CHAPTER 5
The CO-OP Toolkit	151
A Day In My Life: The Daily Activity Log	153
The Paediatric Activity Card Sort (PACS)	153
The Canadian Occupational Performance Measure (COPM)	154
The Performance Quality Rating Scale (PQRS)	155
The Dynamic Performance Analysis Record (DPAR)	157
Using a puppet
Using strategy sheets
Certificate of Completion of CO-OP Intervention	169
CHAPTER 6
Self Study Guide	173
References	181

Figures

Figure 1	The fundamental elements of CO-OP	3
Figure 2	The imperatives for a new approach	7
Figure 3	Foundations of CO-OP	18
Figure 4	International Classification of Functioning, Disability, and Health (ICF)	20
Figure 5	The Canadian Model of Occupational Performance (CMOP)	27
Figure 6	Cognitive stage of Motor Learning	36
Figure 7	The Associative and Autonomous stages of Motor Learning	37
Figure 8	The Model of Performance Complexity	41
Figure 9	Key features of the CO-OP approach	52
Figure 10*	Key features supporting CO-OP objectives	53
Figure 11a*	Key features of the CO-OP approach – Client-chosen goals	55
Figure 11b	Key features of the CO-OP approach – Dynamic Performance Analysis	61
Figure 11c	Key features of the CO-OP approach – Cognitive Strategy Use	67
Figure 11d	Key features of the CO-OP approach – Guided Discovery	82
Figure 11e	Key features of the CO-OP approach – Enabling principles	91
Figure 11f	Key features of the CO-OP approach – Parent involvement	97
Figure 11g	Key features of the CO-OP approach – Intervention format	100
Figure 12*	Dynamic Performance Analysis (DPA) Decision Tree	63
Figure 13	Commander GOAL-PLAN-DO-CHECK	69
Figure 14a	The CO-OP Global Strategy Use Process	73
Figure 14b	The CO-OP Domain Specific Strategy Use Process	74
Figure 15	CO-OP Domain Specific Strategies – VG [BATS For 2Vs]	75
Figure 16	Strategy checklist for writing	117
Figure 17	Jordan’s Strategy Summary Sheet	118
Figure 18	My personal goal sheet	121
Figure 19	Matthew’s Strategy Summary Sheet	127
Figure 20	Peter’s Day Planner Checklist	133
Figure 21	Colin’s Strategy Summary Sheet	138
Figure 22	CO-OP in a group setting: Daily sheets	142
Figure 23	CO-OP in a group setting: Children’s specific strategies	143
Figure 24*	A Day In My Life: Daily Activity Log	152
Figure 25*	PQRS 10-point rating scale	156
Figure 26*	PQRS Magnitude of change scale	156

Figure 27*	Dynamic Performance Analysis Record	.158
Figure 28*	Example sheet visual cues for Goal-Plan-Do-Check	.161
Figure 29	Strategy sheet example A	.162
Figure 30	Strategy sheet example B	.163
Figure 31*	The CO-OP Strategy Observation Checklist for therapists	.164
Figure 32*	Tips for using strategies	.166
Figure 33*	Tips for school and play activities	.167
Figure 34*	Tips for better handwriting	.168
Figure 35*	Certificate of Completion of CO-OP Intervention	.169

* these figures are included on the accompanying CD-Rom

CO-OP Toolkit CD-ROM

Included on the CO-OP ToolKit CD-Rom at the back of this book are the following:

- The key features supporting CO-OP objectives chart
- The complete key features chart
- The Daily Activity Log
- The Performance Quality Rating Scale (PQRS)
- The PQRS Magnitude of Change Scale
- The Dynamic Performance Analysis Record (DPAR) form
- The Dynamic Performance Analysis Decision Tree
- Strategy Development Tools including:
 - The CO-OP Strategy Observation Checklist for therapists
 - Examples of visual cues for the GOAL-PLAN-DO-CHECK strategy
 - Tips for using strategies
 - Tips for school and play activities
 - Tips for better handwriting
- Template for the Certificate of Completion of CO-OP Intervention